

UiO : Faculty of Law
University of Oslo

FINANSMARKEDSFONDET

INSTITUT
FRANÇAIS
NORVÈGE

Finance, Ethics and Society

Reflections in the Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

15 June 2015, Kjerka, Faculty of Law, Domus Media, Karl Johans gate 47, Oslo

9.30 Foreword

Beate Sjøfjell, Companies, Markets, Society and the Environment Research Group

9.35 Introduction

Mads Andenæs and Giuseppe Bianco, University of Oslo

9.45 – 12.00 Ethics in Finance and Business

Tina Søreide, Associate Professor, Norwegian School of Economics

Corruption in International Business

Régis Bismuth, Professor, University of Poitiers

Sovereign Wealth Funds: Codes of Good Conduct and Their Shortcomings

Bjørn Skogstad Aamo, Former President, FATF

Combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing: Monitoring the Implementation of FATF Recommendations

Lars Hornuf, Professor, University of Trier

Fraud in Financial Markets: Insights from Law & Economics and Behavioral Science

13.30 – 15.30 Special Focus: The Global Financial Crisis and Ethics

A. Financial Crises, Criminality and Morality

Jean de Maillard, Vice-President, Tribunal de grande instance of Paris, and Lecturer, Sciences Po

B. The Challenge of Rating Sovereigns

Cristina Iudice, Credit Rating Agencies Unit, ESMA

The ESMA Investigation into Sovereign Ratings

Norbert Gaillard, Economist and Independent Consultant, Paris

Credit Rating Agencies between Scandals and Reforms